Notification

The 4th October, 1991

No.G.S.R.55/Art.309/Const./Amr.(5)/91.— In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution of India, and all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the President of India is pleased to make the following rules for the amendment the Punjab District Attorneys Service Rules, 1960, namely:—

1. RULES

These rules may be called the Punjab District Attorneys Service (First Amendment) Rules, 1991.

2. In the Punjab District Attorneys Service Rules, 1960, in rule 15, for the proviso to sub-rule(2), the following shall be substituted, namely :—

"Provided that notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force,"

(a) in the case of direct recruitment to the post of strict attorney, the actual period of practice at the Court exceeding ten years; and

(ii) Assistant District Attorney (now Deputy District Attorney), whose actual period of practice at the Bar not exceeding

(A) five years in the case of an incumbent of the post in whose case the minimum period of practice at the Bar has been prescribed five years; or

(B) seven years in the case of an incumbent of the post in whose case the minimum period of practice at the Bar has been prescribed seven years;

shall be added to his service qualifying for superannuation and other retirement benefits;

(b) the members of the Service may be permitted to absent themselves from duty during the period the courts of Sessions are closed by vacation by debiting the period of absence to their leave accumulation.

Explanation.- For removal of doubts, it is hereby clarified that under this rule a direct recruit to the Service shall be entitled to the benefit of permissible actual number of years put in by him by way of practice at the Bar, being counted towards his service qualifying for superannuation pension and other retirement benefits notwithstanding that he was not actually practising at the Bar immediately before his joining the Service."
